Using the suffix 'ed'

LO: To be able to use 'ed' to change verbs in to the past tense.

When we write in the past tense, we add 'ed' to most verbs.

Here's an easy way to help you to remember this....

Uncle Ed is very old.

He likes to remember things he did in the past.

With most verbs we add Uncle Ed's name to change the verb to past tense.

I walked to the park.

Add 'ed' to walk because Uncle Ed did this in the past!
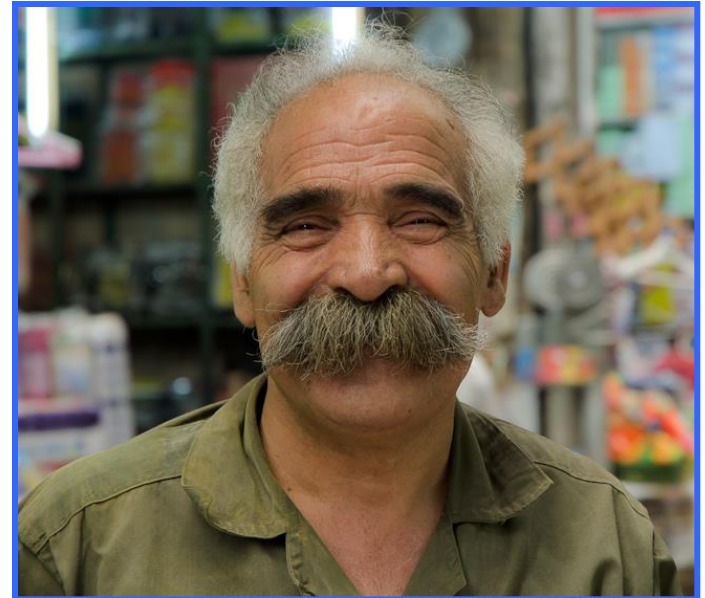

I poured the milk on my cereal.
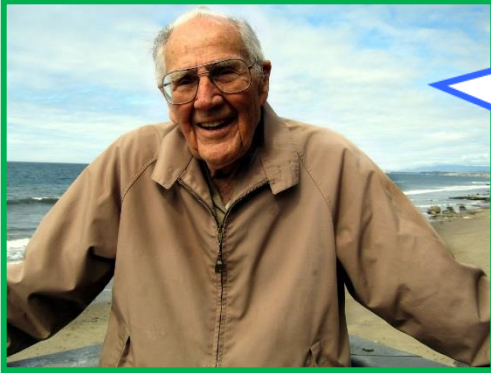

Add 'ed' to pour because Uncle Ed did this in the past!

I talked to my friend Bert.

Add 'ed' to talk because Uncle Ed did this in the past!

I played football.

Add 'ed' to play because Uncle Ed did this in the past!

Now it's your turn...

Add 'ed' to the end of these verbs to show that Uncle Ed did them in the past!

jump

climb

finish

play

fold

open

Can you write a sentence to go with each one?
